

12 Burnett Street Cessnock, NSW

Massive family entertainer with new pool on Hospital Hill

Set behind a classic white picket fence in a highly convenient pocket of Cessnock, this beautifully renovated weatherboard delivers space, style and exceptional lifestyle appeal for families. High ceilings and a light-filled interior create an immediate sense of openness, while the flexible floorplan offers multiple living zones ideal for growing families. A separate lounge provides a quiet retreat, complemented by an open-plan family and dining area with dedicated study nook - perfect for homework, working from home or everyday functionality.

Outdoors is where this home stands apart. The new fibreglass swimming pool (installed within the past six months) anchors the private backyard. The covered alfresco, poolside cabana and new rear deck create a ready-made entertaining space designed for family gatherings, summer weekends and effortless hosting.

Price: $760,000 - $820,000
