The beach at the end of your driveway

Have you ever dreamed of having a holiday home on magnificent Trinity Beach? Have you always been put off by high purchase costs and even higher body corporate fees? These apartments will change your mind.

With just four properties in this bijoux complex the new owners of this apartment will be sure to find their own private oasis.

The apartment has commanding views of the sea and has the Trinity Beach life savers station at the end of the driveway. With such great access to the beach, you will always be taking advantage of this. But if you are not a swimmer, also at the end of your driveway is one of Trinity Beaches great restaurants; and if you prefer a selection, these apartments are less than 200m from the centre of Trinity's restaurants and cafes.
