So Many Extras!!

The owners of this three bedroom home in Kamerunga Villas have spared no expense when it came to accommodating their grey nomad lifestyle.

The property is ready to literally "lock and leave", with security screen doors, reticulated water system, gated community and fantastic neighbours in place who double as neighbourhood watch.

This property needs nothing spent on it. The well appointed kitchen with ample storage is only 12 months old. Outdoor living is taken care of with a spacious undercover area that is fully lined with treated pine, fully insulated and includes retractable shade blinds.

With the cost of power going through the roof, there is no need to concern yourself with this property as there are 1.5 kw flexi solar panels in place. The current owners haven't had a power bill for years

Everything has been thought of and meticulously finished in this property....
