ECO RETREAT

Sitting high on a ridge in one of the most prestigious streets in Caravonica is this nature lovers dream.

This high set, two bedroom cottage oozes appeal and radiates a peaceful ambience. Immaculately maintained and presented with timber floors throughout, fresh paint work inside and out with an expansive decking which is user friendly and all under cover. Glass sliding doors and louvres create a cross flow of breeze and natural light. High ceilings throughout the home gives you a sense of space.

The 1,477m2 block allows you privacy and an opportunity to watch nature in its natural habitat with an abundance of birdlife co-habiting with you on the land.

The seasonal creek is your own natural water feature. The current owner has created a natural rainforest garden and carved out a short walk through the property.

If that doesnt put you in a meditative state then indulge in the outdoor bath.
