Spacious, Easy Living with Room to Grow

Set in a convenient position close to Cessnock CBD and the Hunter Valley, this charming weatherboard home offers a great mix of space, comfort and flexibility. With high ceilings, good natural light and a practical single-level layout, the home feels welcoming from the moment you step inside. The living area includes a combustion fireplace, while the dine-in kitchen gives the home an easy everyday feel. Four bedrooms provide plenty of flexibility for families, guests, a study or even a second living space if needed. Out the back, the large yard is where the property really opens up, with gated access, a gazebo and plenty of room for kids, pets, shedding or future ideas.
