Family Home with Exceptional Future Potential on 643.8sqm

Whether you're looking to secure your first home, invest in a growing location or landbank for the future, this is an opportunity not to be missed. Set on a substantial 643.8sqm (approx.) parcel with a wide 13.5m frontage, the existing three-bedroom home offers comfortable living today while providing outstanding scope to renovate, rebuild or explore future development opportunities, including the potential to combine with neighbouring 114 Blakesley Road (STCA). Ideally positioned close to schools, parks, transport, local shops and Hurstville CBD, this is a rare chance to secure a sizeable landholding with immediate appeal and exciting long-term potential. Offering the perfect balance of affordability, land size and future potential, this is an outstanding opportunity to secure a home you can enjoy today while planning for tomorrow.
