Affordable Family Home with Exciting Future Potential

Whether you're looking to enter the property market, secure a generous parcel of land, or invest in an area with strong long-term growth prospects, this is an opportunity that ticks all the boxes. Set on a level 467.9sqm (approx.) block with a desirable rectangular layout, the existing three-bedroom home offers immediate liveability while providing exciting scope to renovate, rebuild or explore future development potential, including the possibility of combining with neighbouring 112 Blakesley Road (STCA). Offering affordability today and exciting possibilities for tomorrow, this is the perfect opportunity to secure your first home while investing in your future. Perfectly positioned close to local cafes, schools, parks, transport and Hurstville CBD, this is a rare chance for first home buyers to secure a foothold in a highly sought-after location while keeping one eye firmly on the future.
