Price: $335,000

LJ Hooker Yamba proudly present to the market a charming renovated 3 bedroom, 2 bathroom, brick and tile property offering quality and class. The premium fittings have been carefully selected and together with tasteful decoration provide the home with ambience and a great feel. This is truly a credit to its current owners and you will agree upon your inspection that there is not one red cent to spend. From the stunning white timber shutters throughout the home to the unique butler's sink in the kitchen, this home ticks all the boxes. There is even a small internal tropical feature garden between the living area and kitchen. The home also features a large fully tiled indoor/outdoor living area at the side of the house, complete with windows, fly screens and neutral roller blinds. This gem is finished off with a professionally landscaped low maintenance back yard (including two small sheds), a stunning painted rear feature wall and a larger than average garage which allows for extra storage or even a home office! Positioned within a short stroll to Yamba Fair shopping centre, medical centre and public tra...
