Art Deco Gem in a quiet Seaforth cul-de-sac

Set in a quiet and welcoming cul-de-sac and newly refreshed, this charming double-brick Art Deco cottage occupies approximately 580sqm and enjoys a beautiful north-to-rear aspect. A wonderful opportunity for a young family, it offers all the appeal of the Northern Beaches lifestyle in a home that is warm, welcoming and wonderfully child-friendly. Macmillan Street is the kind of community people dream of - a peaceful, friendly cul-de-sac where neighbours know each other, children can play, and a genuine sense of community remains. Yet despite its tranquil setting, you are just a short stroll from the local school, village and bakery.
