Impressive family home with level north-facing garden

Built for purpose, this home has accommodated toddlers, teenagers, young adults, career changes and celebrations over 30 years. It is now ready to welcome a new family. Grand in scale yet warm and inviting in character, this impressive architect-designed home delivers all the space and flexibility sought by modern families to offer an exceptional Beaches lifestyle. Crafted with soaring ceilings, solid Jarrah floors, Western Red Cedar windows and doors and travertine finishes, the home makes a bold first impression with its circular driveway, double-height entry void and sweeping staircase. Generous open-plan living and dining spaces gather around a large entertainer's kitchen, with multiple French doors creating an effortless connection to the expansive north-facing entertaining terrace and level backyard beyond. Immensely comfortable and immediately liveable, it also presents an exciting opportunity to introduce a fresh contemporary aesthetic and create a truly impressive family residence for the years ahead ? within easy reach of Seaforth village, excellent schools and city transport as well as beach...
