Character-filled home with approved granny flat on sought-after Hospital Hill

Rich in character and set amongst established gardens, this charming three-bedroom home offers warmth, space and plenty of opportunity to add your own personal touch. Positioned in sought-after Hospital Hill on a generous garden block, the property combines original features with flexible living and the added benefit of a detached studio. Inside, polished timber floorboards, high ceilings and traditional detailing create an inviting sense of character. The main lounge is particularly appealing, featuring a fireplace with timber mantle and brick chimney, ceiling fan and beautiful timber flooring. The timber kitchen continues the home's traditional feel with a large timber island bench, free standing gas cooktop and oven, along with an original wood-burning stove adding another touch of old-world charm. All three bedrooms are double in size, with two featuring reverse-cycle air conditioning and ceiling fans. The main bathroom includes a shower and toilet, while the separate laundry provides the convenience of an additional shower and to...

Outside, an undercover entertaining area overlooks the established gardens and deep backyard, creating a private setting with plenty of room...
