Architectural Elegance in a Coveted East-Side Position

Redefined for contemporary living by architect-designed updates and additions, this blue-ribbon east side home pairs thoughtful quality and generous scale for growing families. Just 450m to rail the high-side north to rear position is truly exceptional. The home unfolds with multiple living areas offering comfort for every occasion, with the expansive layout designed to adapt as needs change over time. Formal living and dining bring versatile elegance, while the family living and a luxury kitchen, with richly veined stone, sit beneath a spectacular pitched ceiling. A wall of soaring glass draws natural light and integrates the alfresco, garden, and pool.
