Private Sanctuary, moments from the village

Privately nestled against a captivating forest backdrop, this enchanting renovated c.1903 residence offers a rare blend of timeless character, contemporary comfort and peaceful family living. Bathed in northern sunshine, the home balances its charming period features, including soaring ceilings, transom windows and timber floors, with thoughtfully designed modern updates. Expansive open-plan living and dining zones centre around a cosy wood-burning fireplace and flow seamlessly to an elevated entertaining deck, while the custom-painted timber kitchen brings relaxed country charm with an island breakfast bar, quality appliances and a delightful window seat.
