Captivating Home Evolved for Entertaining with Superb Views of the Harbour Bridge

Connoisseurs of bespoke design will appreciate the layers of custom detail that appear across this tri-level home, featuring a rare rooftop terrace with surprising views extending to the harbour. At its heart is Victorian character, with solid construction and elegant period details including two working fireplaces. Architectural modifications increase the connectivity of the multiple indoor and outdoor living areas, offering a sensational venue for celebrating special occasions that has catered for 100 guests. This home will draw the interest of couple and families, offering a flexible floorplan providing up to four bedrooms, where you can easily find a quiet place to work upstairs or out in the garden studio without being disturbed. This address feels immersed in greenery and is close to the Coal Loader's walk through nature, while offering easy access to the train station and Crows Nest's cosmopolitan hub of shops and restaurants.
